

Revised REG 195 Form

New Policy

Effective immediately, the Department of Motor Vehicles (DMV) will no longer accept an Application for Disabled Person Placard or Plates (REG 195) form with a revision date prior to 6/2010. The REG 195 (REV. 4/2011) is available online at www.dmv.ca.gov.

Procedures

When submitting a REG 195, ensure the form is complete and has a revision date of 6/2010 or later. Do not write in the DMV ONLY section of the form, as this will be completed by a DMV technician.

NOTE: DMV will not process a REG 195 with revision date prior to 6/2010.

Background

Legislation requires applicants to be notified on the REG 195 that Disabled Veteran (DV) License Plates are available. The REG 195 (REV. 6/2010 and REV. 4/2011) include instructions to assist customers who qualify for DV License Plates.

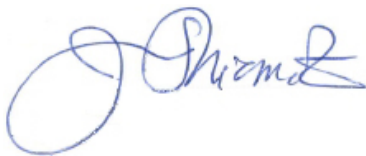

The Medical Board of California informed medical providers in their October 2010 newsletter that as of April 2011 only REG 195 forms with revision dates of 6/2010 or later will be accepted. Additionally, the newsletter stated that if a REG 195 with a revision date prior to 6/2010 is used, the application will be returned to the patient for a new REG 195 to be completed by the medical provider.
